

MasteringVaccineInfo
Boot Camp

EXERCISE 2

Testing a person's access cues

Question three different people with the following series of questions while closely observing their eye movements when answering. Circle the position their eyes were in WHEN ACCESSING their answers. (Print out 3 copies!)

Subject's Name: _____

Subject's Age (if known): _____

Date: _____

Vr: Visual Remembered: Seeing images from memory, recalling things seen before

QUESTION: "What was the color of the house you grew up in?"
"What did your very first car look like?"

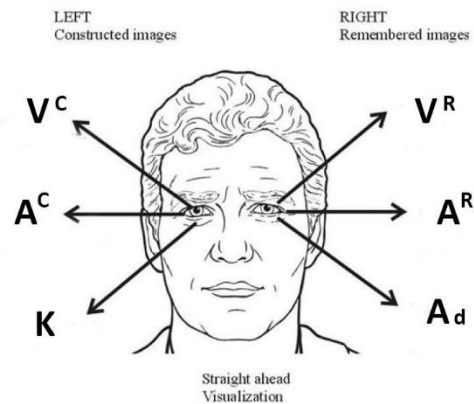

Eye positions as looking at another person

MasteringVaccineInfo
Boot Camp

Vc: Visual Constructed: Images of things people have never seen before. When people are making it up in their head, they are using visual constructed.

QUESTION: “What would your bedroom look like if it was painted pink with blue polka dots?”

Eye positions as looking at another person

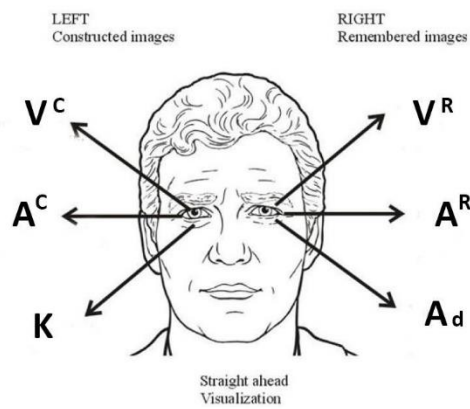

MasteringVaccineInfo
Boot Camp

Ar: Auditory Remembered: When you remember sounds or voices you've heard before or things that you've said to yourself in the past.

QUESTION: "What was the very last thing I said to you?"

"Can you remember the sound of your best friend's voice?"

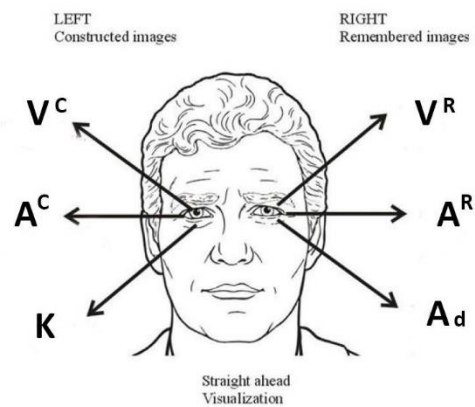

Eye positions as looking at another person

MasteringVaccineInfo
Boot Camp

Ac: Auditory Constructed: Making up sounds you have not heard before.

QUESTION: “What would I sound like if I had Donald Duck’s voice?”

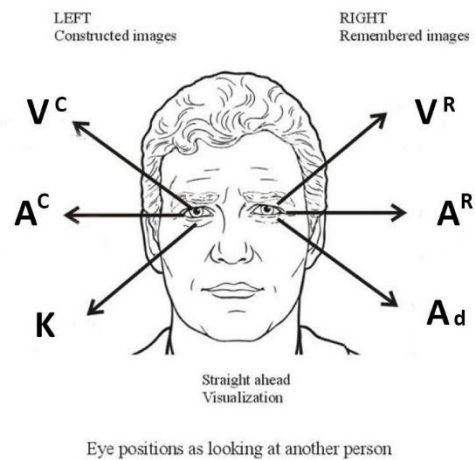

Eye positions as looking at another person

MasteringVaccineInfo
Boot Camp

Ad: Auditory Digital: This is when you are talking to yourself with your internal dialogue.

QUESTION: “Can you recite the alphabet?”
“Can you add 150 and 75 in your mind?”

MasteringVaccineInfo
Boot Camp

K: Kinesthetic: This is when you are accessing your feelings.

QUESTION: “Have you ever walked barefoot in the sand on a hot day?”

What does it feel like?”

“What would it feel like to touch a wet towel?”

Did your subject's access cues match what you expected? Explain: